

She peers from the doorway of a world that has forgotten her. Her 19 year old mother has had a debilitating stroke from which there is no hope of recovery.

In a land where malaria is the number one cause of death, and the people are plagued by cholera, typhoid, river-blindness, HIV, dysentery and malnourishment, most Angolans never see a doctor – there simply are not enough.

“And the prayer offered in faith will make the sick person well.”

James 5:15
